Two U.S. Destroyers Stand By Flying Arrow

Will Escort It Anywhere But Shanghai

Abord the Flying Arrow, Jan. 10—(AP)—Two U.S. destroyers stood by today to help the Flying Arrow patch its wounds from a shelling by a Nationalist gunboat at sea off Communist Shanghai.

The crew of this American freighter was busy plugging about 30 holes. The damage was inflicted by a single blocking gunboat which opened fire without warning Monday at the point-blank range of 200 yards.

The destroyers are the Stickle and the Bussell. Lt. (jg) C. L. Stuart of the Stickle came aboard shortly after the destroyers arrived Monday afternoon.

He said the destroyers could escort the Flying Arrow to any port but Shanghai.

Tech and Plugs For Holes

(In Washington, Defense Secretary Johnson and Secretary of the Navy Matthews said in a joint statement the destroyers had provided repair tools and plugs for the holes. They estimated repairs could be made in eight hours. Johnson said the destroyers had orders to help the Flying Arrow reach any port but Shanghai and to leave if the ship heads toward that Communist port.)

Stuart was greeted as he came aboard by Capt. David Jones. Jones took him through this 6,214-ton freighter, showing him the damage.

Stuart said the destroyers would remain here as long as they are needed.

Beyond 3-Mile Limit

The ship is anchored well off the three-mile limit of Chinese territorial waters. The captain estimated she was at least 22 miles from shore when the attack began.

That attack came as the Isbrandtsen line ship headed for Shanghai with an estimated $10,000,000 cargo of cotton, oil, and chemicals in defiance of nationalist blockade warnings.

I got up early Monday to watch the ship enter the perilous waters inside the mouth of the Yangtze.

Hardly 200 yards away off the starboard was a nationalist gunboat. It was sending us blinker signals. The gunboat was warning us that mines were being laid.

I went to the radio cabin. Operator Lawrence C. Klossowski of Syracuse, N.Y., sat at his key, ready to send any distress message.

While we were talking we suddenly heard the shells coming over. No one was expecting it. I ran to the port side and saw the shells splashing in the water. Some looked like three-inches.

Church Is Crowded For Last Rites Of Crippled Youth

Bethany, Ill., Jan. 10—(P)—The little Methodist church was crowded today at the funeral of Donald Theodore Lesley, 19.

And noticeable in the crowd were ten of Lesley's classmates at the University of Illinois. They showed the marks of physical handicaps. Four were in wheel chairs. Some of the others lacked arms or legs.

Lesley, who died Saturday in Mercy hospital, Urbana, of complications resulting from a broken leg, had been paralyzed from the waist down since a corn picked fell on him when he was seven.

The minister, Dr. Kilbur Powell of Peoria, recited a few of the facts about Lesley well known to those in the church.

"Ted Lesley soared far above his handicaps. He achieved in his brief life a maturity and a vision rare in men 40 years of age," Dr. Powell said.

After the service, Lesley's body was buried in the cemetery at Findlay, some ten miles south of Bethany. His fellow students made the trip to the cemetery.

MAN TO APPEAL 90-DAY SENTENCE FOR DRUNKEN DRIVING

Hammond, Ind., Jan. 10—(P)—Robert Grace, 25, of Calumet City, Ill., said today he would appeal from the 90-day Penal Farm sentence given by Hammond City Judge Stanley A. Tweedle on charges of reckless and drunken driving.

The charges were placed against Grace Oct. 29 after his car struck and killed a 12-year-old Katherine Johnstone of Hammond as she was stooping to pick up a dime she had dropped while waiting for a bus.

The girl suffered a fractured skull and was unconscious for 23 days after the accident.

Robert Pate, Hammond attorney who represented Grace, told Judge Tweedle the bartender who served drinks to Grace was as guilty as the defendant.

Heavy Winds Batter Northwestern Coast

By The Associated Press

Destructive winds of near hurricane force battered the northwestern coastal regions Tuesday and a howling blizzard lashed parts of Minnesota and northern Michigan. Gales and a new cold wave sent temperatures into a tailspin in the Midwest where flooded rivers and streams have made several thousand homeless in some areas.

The daily June-in-January weather continued in the east. Philadelphia broke its fourth heat record this month when the mercury climbed to 60, highest for the date on record. The old record of 59 was set in 1930. The storm that lashed the coasts of Washington and Oregon sent a virtual blizzard across the Oregon-California border. It was the worst storm of the winter for the section. Areas were isolated. Inland regions were hard hit as the storm turned into a blizzard and raced southward.

One edge of the storm hit northern Washington and northern Idaho. Four inches of fresh snow

White River Pours Over Levee Into Hazleton, Indiana

Vincennes, Ind., Jan. 10—(P)—The rain-swollen White river poured over a levee into Hazleton, Ind., today, stealing the flood attention from this Washburn river city.

The flood spilled into the lower end of the town of 500, 14 miles south of here, chasing householder to the hill on the other side of town.

The weather bureau predicted the White would rise another eight-tenths of a foot before it crests at Hazleton late tomorrow—a height expected to put half the town under water. The rains, measuring up to two inches in the White river valley, ended this morning.

The water pushed into the edge of the business section, and some merchants began moving out merchandise. Lockers in the schoolhouse basement were flooded, but pupils went on with their three R's. Standard Oil Co. removed gasoline from its flooded bulk plant.

Lowlands flooded on both sides of U.S. highway 41, a road washed out there in a record flood 13 years ago. The predicted 29-foot crest would be well under the record 31.64 in 1937.

Upstream, the White hit its predicted crest of 32 feet today at Shoals, Ind., and continued rising. Another six inches is expected by tomorrow morning. Schools are closed, and the state board of health ordered drinking water boiled because the city's deep wells are flooded.

U.S. Expects To Rest Its Case In Tucker Fraud Trial

Chicago, Jan. 10—(P)—The government expects to rest its case today in the Tucker mail fraud trial marathon.

After 11 weeks of testimony by prosecution witnesses, Robert Downing, assistant U.S. attorney, told Federal District Judge Walter J. Labur late today that all government evidence has been presented.

Downing said the prosecution wished to review its exhibits Wednesday morning "to make sure they are all in order," and then will have completed its case.

It is expected that the battery of attorneys for the eight defendants, headed by William T. Kirby who represents Preston Tucker, president of the Tucker Corporation, will move immediately for a directed verdict of acquittal for all the accused.

The defendants, all promoters of the $28,000,000 venture organized to build rear-engine automobiles, are charged with using the mails to defraud investors. The Tucker Corporation is idle, pending acceptance given by Hammond City Judge Stanley A. Tweedle on charges of reckless and drunken driving.

The charges were placed against Grace Oct. 29 after his car struck and killed a 12-year-old Katherine Johnstone of Hammond as she was stooping to pick up a dime she had dropped while waiting for a bus.

Guilty Consciences Shave National Deficit A Little

Washington, Jan. 10—(P)—President Truman has announced that this country will spend $42 billion next year, and as Rep. Rich (R-Pa.) asks at least twice a week in the house:

"Where's the money coming from?"

Mr. Truman has tried to supply some of the answers in his 1,300-page budget message.

For instance, Mr. T. says that, in addition to income taxes, Uncle Sam is banking on people's guilty consciences.

Last year people with aching consciences sent the treasury $44,988,315 and Mr. Truman doesn't explain why, but he apparently has a hunch consciences won't be as guilty this fiscal year. He reckons on $576,571, and figures that next year it will dwindle still further, to $562,270.

Some people feel sorry for our poor taxpayers, and make outright gifts. Last year the government got $183,315 and Mr. Truman looks brightly to next year when he expects $328,600 in gifts.

Sniffers of snuff too, aid their nation's treasury. The snuff tax money

Demands For Probe Of Denfeld Firing Delays Sherman OK

Washington, Jan. 10—(P)—Angry Republican demands for an investigation into the firing of Admiral Louis E. Denfeld delayed Senate action today on the nomination of Admiral Forrest P. Sherman to succeed Denfeld as chief of naval operations.

Denfeld was ousted last Oct. 27, just two weeks after he testified before a congressional committee that policies adopted by top army and air force brass in the Pentagon were crippling the navy's attack power.

President Truman announced the dropping of Denfeld following weeks of explosive charges and counter-charges by admirals, generals and lesser lights of the three armed forces. Mr. Truman said he acted on the recommendation of Secretary of the Navy Matthews.

At a stormy session today, Chairman Tydings (D-Md.) of the Senate armed forces committee agreed to put off consideration of the Sherman appointment until Jan. 19. That is the date when Denfeld's present leave expires. He is expected to disclose then whether he plans to throw up his 40-year naval career or accept a lesser post.

Tydings cautioned the committee against voting for an investigation until it knows all the facts in the Denfeld case. He said he knew some inside facts "not generally known."

Peoria, Ill., Jan. 10—(P)—John Calvin Manuel, 84, died today. His wife suffered fatal burns last Friday. Doctors attributed the elderly man's death to shock.

Mrs. Manuel's clothes caught fire in the front room of their home. Manuel slept soundly through the blaze on a couch in the room.

Peoria, Ill., Jan. 10—(P)—Friends of Ray O. Becker, 79, retired general agent for the Northwestern Life Insurance Co., received news today that he died last night in Tucson, Ariz.

Becker, who headed the insurance firm's Peoria office for 32 years, also was a director of the Commercial Bank.

Rockford's Newest Lawyer Is State's Attorney's Wife

Rockford, Ill., Jan. 10—(P)—Rockford's newest lawyer is the wife of Winnebago county's state attorney. She's also the mother of two youngsters.

But Mrs. Elizabeth Foard Canfield, admitted to the Illinois Bar yesterday at Springfield, doesn't plan to hang out her shingle immediately.

"I think I'll take a rest," she said today.

Most of her Bar examination studying was done in the private office of her husband, State's Attorney Robert R. Canfield, between attending the wants of her sons, James, 15, and Philip, three.

Mrs. Canfield said she spent four years at informal part time study. She took a pre-law course at Cornell College, Mt. Vernon, Iowa, before marrying.

Mrs. Canfield is the daughter of Dr. James R. Foard, a Methodist minister, of Elgin, Ill.

Congress Promises Early Hearing To Draft Extension

Washington, Jan. 10—(P)—An early hearing—but nothing more—was promised today on the peace-time draft law which President Truman says "must" be continued.

Informed that Secretary of Defense Johnson would send a draft extension bill to congress this week, Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) of the House armed services committee said:

"Of course we will promptly give a hearing to the defense department's request."

"But I think I know exactly what this committee will do."

Many members of the committee are openly hostile to a further extension of the selective service act. No men have been inducted since last January. Vinson wrote the president last fall there was little chance that congress would extend the act, which is due to expire June 30.

Military men want to keep it on the books in the belief it would (1) bolster voluntary enlistments, (2) save months of time in the event that war broke out and (3) serve notice that the United States means business in the North Atlantic pact and other more against potential aggressors.

300 U.S. Tanks To Be Shipped To Formosa

Philadelphia, Jan. 10—(P)—Three hundred U.S. army tanks and armored cars were being loaded today aboard a Turkish freighter here for shipment to the Chinese nationalists at Formosa.

The equipment was sold from "excess to immediate U.S. needs" in storage at the Lima (Ohio) ordnance depot.

In Washington, the Chinese embassy said the tanks and cars were purchased under the $125,000,000 aid program voted China by congress in 1948.

Lt. Col. R. B. Fontaine, commander of the Lima depot, said loading of the armored vehicles aboard the Reading company train was completed last week.

They were brought to a Port Richmond pier in northeastern Philadelphia for shipment to the Pacific aboard the S.S. Mardin, a freighter owned by Marta T. A. S. of Istanbul, Turkey.

The Chinese nationalist government made all transportation arrangements, both rail and water. Col. Fontaine said.

The only description and indication of designation was provided in this bill of lading on one of the 90 flatcars which are being loaded aboard the freighter.

"The Chinese government is paying for packing, handling, and transportation direct, and not from funds allotted to the department of defense."

"Markings peculiar to the army's armored command, except that of the registration No., will be removed from the vehicles."

The price of the tanks was listed in the bill as $1,000 each. Similar tanks, without weapons, cost about $58,000 to build during the war.

British Election Is Set For February

Parties Gird For Campaign Battles

London, Wednesday, Jan. 11—(P)—Prime Minister Attlee today called a general election for Feb. 23.

Britain's 33,000,000 voters on that date will elect a new House of Commons in what promises to be one of the most bitterly fought political contests in recent British history.

Labour vs. Conservatives

The issue will be between Attlee's labor government, which in nearly five years of rule has espoused socialism, state planning and nationalization of industry, and Winston Churchill's conservatives, who defend free enterprise. But both uphold "welfare state" schemes.

The election was called at a moment regarded by many observers as favorable to the Laborites, despite the defeat in the last six weeks of two labor governments in New Zealand and Australia.

The parties will nominate their candidates officially Feb. 13.

The new parliament will meet March 1 to be sworn in and to elect a speaker. King George will open the new parliament in state March 6.

The Labor party cancelled observance of its founding on Feb. 3 in order not to interrupt a full-tilt campaign.

Metropolis, Ill., Jan. 10—(P)—An armed man robbed William Blazer's filling station and country grocery store of $200 shortly before closing time last night, reported Sheriff J. Herbert Goyert. The man fled and the Massac county sheriff said he had no clue to his identity. The store is four miles north of here on U.S. Highway 45.

Rockford, Ill., Jan. 10—(P)—All non-school activities at Rockford school buildings were ordered stopped today because of the coal shortage.

The board of education order affects 35 organizations using the buildings on seasonal contracts and 100 other groups using them for occasional meetings or other activities. High school basketball games are not affected by the order.

Ontarioville, Ill., Jan. 10—(P)—A spectacular blaze today blocked travel on U.S. Highway 20 after a truck with two tank trailers loaded with 6,000 gallons of fuel oil skidded into a light pole.

The driver, Roy Herr, 42, of 110 Margaret street, Joliet, escaped from his cab by breaking the windshield glass.

The rear trailer tipped over, and some 3,000 gallons of the oily spilled and burned. The other trailer remained upright and did not catch fire.

Ogle Co. State's Attorney Asks Ban On All Gambling

Oregon, Ill., Jan. 10—(P)—The Ogle county state's attorney today asked the sheriff to "Clamp the Lid" on gambling and prevent possible underworld warfare.

The request was made by Wayne Bettner, the state's attorney, in a letter to Sheriff Joseph Maas.

Bettner said he had been informed the recent attempts to operate slot machines in clubs and taverns, he said, constituted over the machine operations "could lead to a gambling war, and that could lead to a murder. We've had enough murders in Ogle county."

Bettner's letter was disclosed two days after the Rochelle Country Club was raided by hijackers for the second time in five months. Rochelle police said one slot machine was taken from the club.

State Public Aid Commission Cuts Relief Allowances

Chicago, Jan. 10—(P)—The Illinois Public Aid commission today abolished certain less essential monthly allowances in an economy move.

The items cut are education, recreation, medicine chest supplies, and personal care allowances which have been going to the approximately 330,000 recipients on relief, aid to dependent children and old age pension programs.

The commission said the cut—about $586,000 a month—was made in an attempt to conserve its rapidly diminishing public assistance funds for basic necessities. The lopped off allowances will be discontinued beginning with February payments.

Approximately 160,000 of the persons affected are Cook county residents.

The commission is faced with a $21,000,000 deficit in the three programs as the number of persons receiving aid increases. In the last four months 21,600 new names went on the lists. The roster is 16 per cent larger than it was a year ago.

The blind assistance program, operating within its budget, is not affected by the slash.

Moose population in Alaska is about 30,000.

Acheson Upholds Decision For No Action In China

Washington, Jan. 10—(P)—Secretary of State Acheson today upheld the administration's stand against military intervention on Formosa.

He was reported to have said the United States could do more to combat communism in the seething Orient through economic aid to lands still outside the Red orbit.

Chairman Connally (D-Tex.) told reporters Acheson expressed that view in a day-long session with members of the Senate foreign relations committee which Connally heads.

The Texan also quoted the secretary as saying that regardless of Formosa's fate this country has an "irrepressible" defense line in the Pacific without making use of that island stronghold.

But two committee members who asked their names to be withheld disputed Connally's statement that Acheson had termed America's Pacific defenses "irrepressible." They quoted the secretary as saying that he was not qualified to pass on military strategy and any such appraisal would have to come from the joint chiefs of staff.

Among those attending the closed-door session was a group of republicans who have been demanding that the United States extend direct military aid and guidance to help Chiang Kai-Shek's nationalist forces keep Formosa out of the hands of the Chinese Reds.

DR. ARTHUR PEARMAN, 65, OF ROCKFORD DIES

Rockford, Ill., Jan. 10—(P)—Dr. Arthur Pearman, 65, a Rockford physician, died today.

He was a native of Champaign, Ill., and served in the army medical corps during World War I.

His widow, Katharine, and two daughters survive. Funeral services will be held in Rockford Thursday.

APPOINTED COUNTY JUDGE

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 10—(P)—Gov. Stevenson today appointed Byron E. Koch, 32, as county judge for Scott county. A University of Illinois graduate, Koch succeeds Judge L. Allan Watt of Winchester who resigned.

Gets Many Offers To Take Egyptian Girls He Inherited

Chicago, Jan. 10—(P)—Christopher G. Janus may not want the four beautiful Egyptian dancing girls he says he inherited, but plenty of American males are ready to take them off his hands.

Three students at Mississippi State college, signing the names of Guy, Skeeter and Ernest, wrote:

"We three lonesome, desolate, disgusted boys at this uneducational school will be pleased to relieve you of your entire burden."

The letter was one of scores of offers—mostly for marriage or adoption—since Janus, Chicago exporter and importer, says he has received for the girls.

Janus, 38, and married, said last week that he inherited the responsibility for the welfare of the girls when his uncle died leaving him a one third share in an Egyptian cotton plantation. Under that country's custom, Janus said, a property owner is responsible for the welfare of everything on his land. The families of the plantation workers include 12 dancing girls, and Janus said four of them are his private worry.

MAN TO APPEAL 90-DAY SENTENCE FOR DRUNKEN DRIVING

Hammond, Ind., Jan. 10—(P)—Robert Grace, 25, of Calumet City, Ill., said today he would appeal from the 90-day Penal Farm sentence given by Hammond City Judge Stanley A. Tweedle on charges of reckless and drunken driving.

The charges were placed against Grace Oct. 29 after his car struck and killed a 12-year-old Katherine Johnstone of Hammond as she was stooping to pick up a dime she had dropped while waiting for a bus.

The girl suffered a fractured skull and was unconscious for 23 days after the accident.

U. S. PRODUCTIVITY RATE HOLDS KEY TO TRUMAN'S PREDICTIONS

For the average American family, $12,000 a year; for the whole United States, annual production amounting to one trillion dollars. That's right, trillion.

This was President Truman's prediction for the year 2000 A. D. as the nation stands near the midpoint of the 20th century. He's probably the first chief executive ever to say "trillion" and mean it.

To gauge how optimistic his forecast was, you have only to note that total yearly output in the U. S. today is around $255,000,000,000, slightly more than a fourth of the figure he anticipates for the start of the 21st century.

As for family income, there's probably some disagreement among economists as to where it stands today. Mr. Truman is said to have taken a 1950 average of $4,200 a year. So his $12,000 forecast for the year 2000 would mean a tripling of income for every family.

Is this a lot of wild dreaming or is it really possible? The President arrived at these spectacular estimates largely by projecting forward the same growth rate of productivity (output per worker) that the country enjoyed during the years 1900-50. In other words, he assumed that economically we shall not slow down our expansion in the next 50 years.

Since 1900 the country's "national product" has increased about four times—the very rate of change Mr. Truman foresees for 1950-2000. Productivity has doubled in the past five decades, rising at an average rate of 2 percent a year. It is this trend that holds the key to the President's prediction.

Because the trend has so far showed no signs of slackening off, we must conclude that Mr. Truman's trillion-dollar talk is not fantasy. But whether the possible is also probable is something else. Trends have an unhappy way of reversing themselves. Curves arching gracefully upward often go plummeting without warning.

Mr. Truman himself acknowledged some of the pitfalls in his State of the Union message. He hung a big proviso on his bright forecast. To make the dream come true, he said, we have to keep the economy in balance. We must nourish it both with carefully guarded resources and with the dynamic energies of workers and business leaders who have faith in free enterprise.

None of these tasks is easy. So if we do hit that trillion-dollar mark in 2000, it's safe to say we won't do it without feeling the same often severe growing pains we suffered during the last 50 years.

Legion Post Here Collects Toys For Overseas Shipment

The American Legion's "Tide of Toys" campaign—a nationwide collection of new toys for the kids of western Europe—was termed "an American youth movement against communism" by Illinois Legion Commander Merle E. Schaad of Princeville.

"American youngsters are contributing Christmas toys to the toyless children of western Europe as an unselfish gesture to give them the assurance that the spirit of peace and fellowship, introduced by another child two thousand years ago, still lives," Schaad said.

He added: "This tremendous tide of toys will effectively demonstrate that the children of America, living under a system of free enterprise, can afford to be children of America, living under a system of free enterprise, can afford to be generous to other children as a result of the benefits of the government we enjoy."

Commander Schaad announced that the deadline on the "Tide of Toys" has been extended to January 20, 1950, in order to allow Illinois Legion posts to complete local "house to house" collections of toys. Many of the Illinois cities have gone "all-out" in "Operation Toy" with the help of church groups and other organizations, Schaad said. Department stores and fire stations have been used as collection agencies in some instances.

Locally, the Jacksonville American Legion Post No. 279 will wind up the T.O.T. campaign January 20, Commander Wm. C. Cochran said Tuesday.

Toys are still being accepted at American Legion Home, 215 West College avenue. The local Legion post will crate and ship the toys to the American Legion, Pier 38, South Philadelphia, Pa. CARE will be in charge of European distribution.

The kits will be made and filled in Troops, and will be sent overseas to aid the boys and girls who are without a pencil or a box of crayons.

February is International Friendship month in Girl Scouting, and Girl Scouts in Jacksonville and Morgan county plan to launch the project during that month.

Mrs. Robert Hemphill, training chairman for the Jacksonville Girl Scout Council, will be in charge of the meetings.

All leaders and assistant leaders are urged to attend.

There seems to be wide agreement that when roast beef is on the dinner table, top-notch eating is in store. For the homemaker, it's an easily planned menu as the delightful flavor of roast beef blends favorably with practically any vegetable or fruit.

Perhaps the standing rib of beef is the widest known, but this same cut may be rolled into a compact roast. Ask your meat dealer to remove the rib bones, roll the meat, then securely tie it. Carving is simple work, as the rolled roast is placed cut side up on a platter so that the juicy slices may be cut from across the top.

Two Meals
If choosing the standard rib of beef, it is wise to buy a roast, of at least two ribs for the best in roasting results. Have the market remove the short ribs for a satisfying second meal. They may be barbecued or become the center of a delicious stew.

During roasting to keep the rolled roast from cooking in its drippings, it is placed on a rack; however, with the rib bones down, the standing rib roast has its own rack. Both roasts go in a shallow open roasting pan without water. A meat thermometer is a great aid in roasting as it registers the exact degree of doneness. It is inserted in the center of the meat before it goes in the oven so that it is neither resting in fat nor on bone.

For an attractive roast full of rich meat juices, the meat is cooked at the dinner table, top-notch eating is in store. For the homemaker, it's an easily planned menu as the delightful flavor of roast beef blends favorably with practically any vegetable or fruit.

Settling Estates Topic Of Lesson For Home Bureau

Mrs. R. J. Alkire and Mrs. C. J. Neuner gave the major lesson on "Financial Plans For Illness, Death, and Settlement of Estates" at the January meeting of the Home Bureau, at the home of Mrs. James Dunlap on Jones Place Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Alkire discussed the plans for illness and death, and Mrs. Neuner, the settlement of estates according to Illinois law when the decedent leaves no will.

Mrs. Frances King, home adviser, will discuss the making of wills at the next meeting, which will take place at the home of Mrs. T. R. Baker, 1824 South Main street, with Mrs. Clarence Abernathy as assisting hostess. The meeting will be held on Jan. 30, instead of the regular meeting date, Feb. 6, which comes during Farm and Home Week. Roll call was answered by giving an unusual state law.

Mrs. Dunlap, county chairman, announced that the Rural Youth will give three one-act plays at the new school in South Jacksonville on the evening of January 16, the winner to compete in the district contest at Petersburg.

Mrs. Dunlap also discussed the possibility that the Home Bureau will charter a bus to enable members to attend the Homebuilders' Show at Kiel Auditorium in St. Louis on February 13.

Mrs. Willard Cody gave the minor lesson on "Recreation For Youth." Mrs. C. J. Neuner presided at the tea table during the social hour which followed the business meeting.

Fat Is Not a Nice Word When Applied to the Body

Don't say it's your thyroid while reaching for the box of chocolates. Possibly one bulky person in 100 has some glandular disturbance and that is truly a case for a physician. Never take any treatment for a gland condition without your doctor's advice. But for the other 99 per cent who are trying to fight the "Battle of the Bulges," common sense is the watchword. It is not necessary to overeat and it is not necessary to go hungry, either. Furthermore, it just doesn't make sense to go on a strenuous diet—take off weight and then quickly put it back on again when the diet period is over. For it is obvious that one cannot continue a starvation diet over a protracted period. Within the last year or so, several diet and vitamin "plans" have appeared on the market, which means cut down on the food intake and fortify with vitamins for hunger distress. But as mentioned above, you can't keep this up very long and when you quit—back comes the fat.

An exhaustive survey recently made among Illinois druggists showed one outstanding reducing aid is not based on the diet and vitamin "plan." It allows you to eat plenty. You eat all you want but you eat LESS. Sounds like double talk, but it isn't. It definitely stops you from eating more than necessary for the energy you spend. At the same time, it dehydrates and eliminates.

Over a half million bottles of this preparation, called Rennei Concentrate has been sold in Illinois in the past 2½ years.

You can get a four-ounce bottle of Rennei from any Illinois druggist. Mix with 12 ounces of canned grapefruit juice and take just two tablespoonfuls twice a day.

If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose that ugly fat, the makers agree to refund your money.

Women's Auxiliary Of Our Saviour's Hospital Meets

On January 6 the second meeting of the newly-formed Women's Auxiliary of Our Saviour's Hospital was held at the Nurses' Home.

Mrs. Warner Newcomb presented a resume of the formation and activities of other hospital auxiliaries in this country and Canada. There are now in existence 673 such organizations with a membership exceeding 300,000 women who have done much to improve the health of the communities and the welfare of the hospitals with which they are affiliated.

Mrs. Stuart Lippert, temporary secretary, read the proposed constitution and by-laws, which will be submitted for adoption by the auxiliary at the next meeting.

Mrs. A. M. Paisley, temporary chairman, appointed a social committee headed by Mrs. A. G. Wolfe, with Mrs. Robert Hartman, Mrs. Alfred Schultz, and Mrs. A. R. Gregory as assistants.

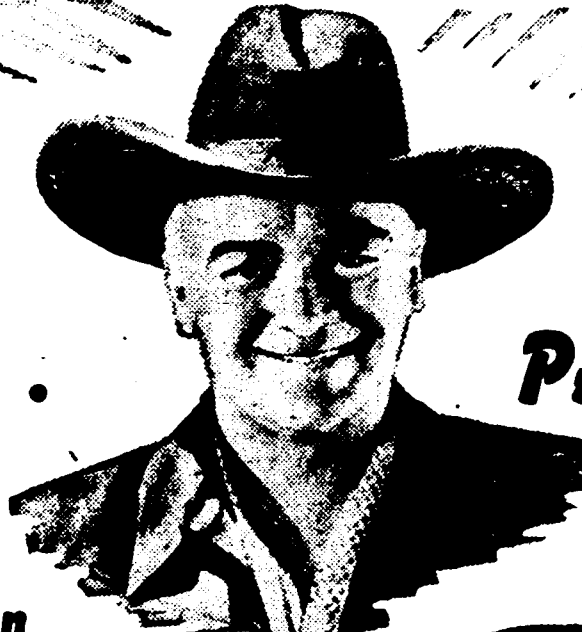

A nominating committee, composed of Mrs. Vincent T. J. Lenth, Mrs. R. P. Templin, and Mrs. J. L. Bunch, was appointed. The permanent officers will be elected at the February meeting.

Rev. Maxton Will Be Honored With Farewell Service

Jerseyville—The Ministerial Alliance of Jerseyville is sponsoring a service of Farewell and Godspeed for one of its members, Rev. David B. Maxton, at the Jerseyville Presbyterian church on January 15 at 8:00 p. m. This will be a union service.

The Junior Westminster group of the Presbyterian church honored the Maxtons at a farewell party given in conjunction with their meeting this week. Fly 67 Lambs To Chicago

Dixon, Calif. — (AP) — Flying 67 lambs to Chicago for show purposes cost money and brought special problems to Howard Vaughn, a local sheepgrower. But the chartered plane delivered them in such good condition that they won the Reserve Champion Award at the International Livestock Exposition.

Air freight wouldn't pay off on ordinary commercial lamb shipments, Vaughn points out. He had to wrap each lamb in burlap to protect its fleece and had to cool the plane off gradually as it left warm California and headed eastward into colder weather.

"FASHIONED for every taste—Priced for every BUDGET"

So you think that's taking in a lot of territory—for Buick, or anyone else.

Well, look at the 1950 Buick line, which these three high-fashion honeys represent, and decide for yourself if it isn't right.

Nineteen—Yes, 19— smart new models to choose from—open cars, closed cars, sports cars, utility models, all with the smart styling of big, bold-lined bumper-guard grilles, sleek tapering fenders and the over-all look of a jet plane.

Three full series—SPECIAL, SUPER and ROADMASTER—with SPECIAL models available both in standard finish, and the extra luxury of de luxe handling.

Three separate power plants—in five horsepower ratings—all higher in compression than before, and all more powerful.

All valve-in-heads too, all Fireball design—and one of them, the sensational new F-263, wholly new—giving SUPER models a brilliance on the road to make you cheer.

Four wheelbases—all planned for riding comfort—with overhang reduced to make parking and garaging easier. Rear seats are as much as 13 inches wider, giving generous hip-room, shoulder-room, head-room and leg-room to all models.

Plenty of outlook as well. And the abiding comfort of coil springs on all four wheels. And torque-tube drive, to keep your going steady and sure. Not to mention Safety-Ride rims, for comfort plus control.

Then look at prices—do they really fit any budget?

They range from the fine-car level of the ROADMASTER down to just-above-the-lowest figures on the SPECIAL.

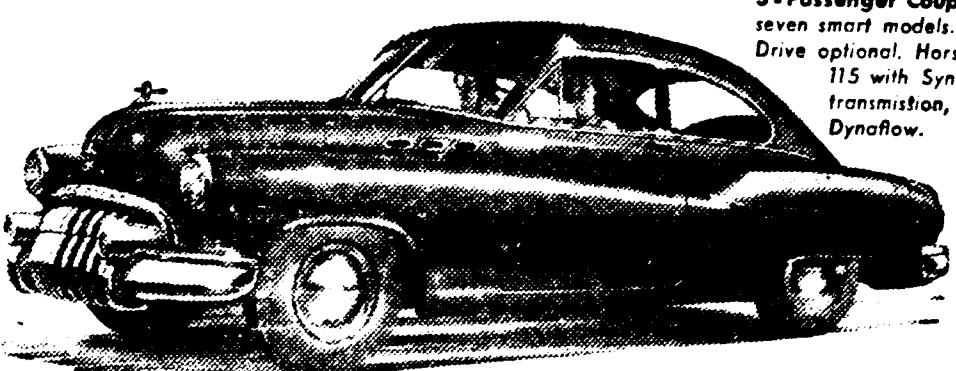

Six ROADMASTER Models, including the ultra-smart Riviera, cover the fine-car field. 152 hp. Fireball straight-eight engine, Dynaflo Drive standard.

But even these are so little above anything else—buy you so many more years of happy use—and give you a car of such consistently-better trade-in value—that you'll find Buick reachable by buyers in any price range.

So why not get the whole story, price and all, from your Buick dealer now? Could be 1950 will be the Big Year in which you step up to a Buick and start driving the car of your dreams.

The delivery situation's good, you'll find the "deal" is right—and you're going to find yourself a lot happier just to have an order signed!

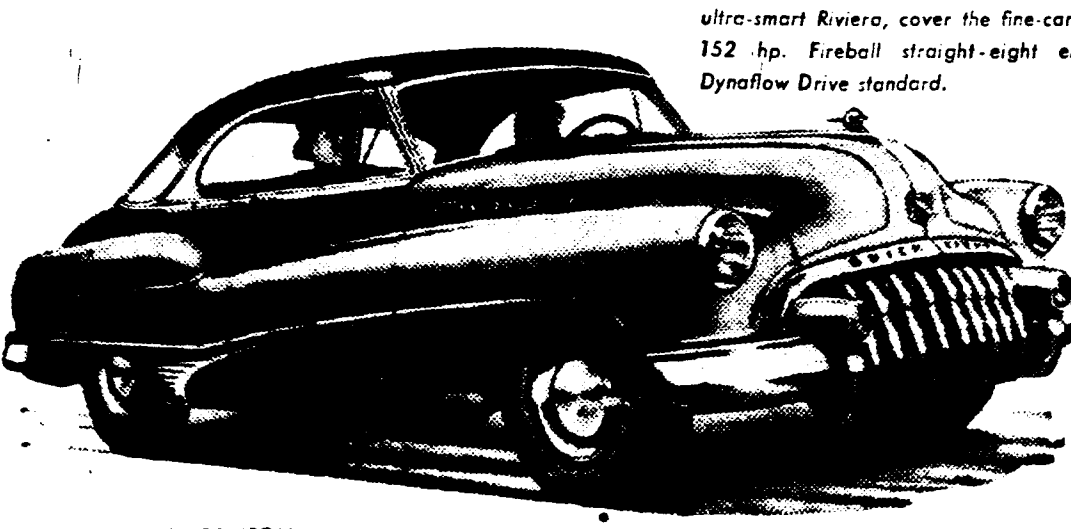

Here's the Smart SPECIAL 3-Passenger Coupe, one of seven smart models. Dynaflo Drive optional. Horsepower—115 with Synchro Mesh transmission, 122 with Dynaflo.

HALF-CENTURY HIGHLIGHTS

FAMILY LIFE in the early 1900's was just that—much more of a reality than in later decades, when outside attractions lured the family from the hearthside. In this commonplace turn-of-the-century scene, it is, perhaps, significant that three of the family are reading. The youngster on the floor is being wanted to far-away places by the stereoscope, that indispensable adjunct of post-Victorian culture. But Father probably has one tie with his present-day descendant. As he reads his newspaper, he probably grows at Mother that the country's going to the demimoon bow-wow and somebody ought to head off that dad-blamed Congress before it bankrupts all of us. And Mother, unlike her voting granddaughter, probably murmurs "Yes, dear."

WIFE HYSTERICAL WHEN MAN WHACKS OFF RED TRESSES

Phoenix, Ariz., Jan. 10—(AP)—Bertus H. Verkey, 40, gave his 27-year-old wife an unwanted haircut. She wound up in the hospital and he in the county jail.

His wife, Dorothy Louise, says her husband cut off her waist-length red tresses with barber shears and clippers "for revenge."

She went to the hospital after hysteria.

Verkey told reporters: "I sheared her hair to keep her from flaunting her tresses. It gives her too much power."

Verkey was charged with assault with deadly weapons.

The Verkeys were married Christmas Day. He said the marriage was his fifth and her third.

Parable Of Talents Works
Earley, England—(P)—When Vicar Stanley Robinson tested Saint Matthew's "Parable of the Talents" on 15 parishioners he found they had better business heads than the three servants in the Bible. To raise church funds, he gave each a shilling (14 cents)—just as the parable's hero gave one servant five talents, another two, and a third one.
In the parable, two servants doubled their capital and the third brought back only the original talent. But Vicar Robinson's "good and faithful servants" turned in 11 pounds eight shillings and a penny ($31.93) on the 15-shilling ($2.10) investment.
A bank manager spent his shilling on gasoline and charged his friends for lifts. A tailor bought a zip fastener and made a pouch that sold for two pounds five shillings.
Others made and sold iron holders or built up brisk little sidelines in cigarettes, razor blades, papers and flowers.

RECORD GOAL
New York, Jan. 10—(P)—The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis today described its 1950 March of Dimes campaign as the "most crucial" in its history and set a record goal of $52,000,000.

President Basil O'Connor said the foundation's funds were exhausted "as a result of the unprecedented infantile paralysis epidemics in 1949."

FLURRIES OF BUYING
LIFT GRAIN PRICES

By GEORGE McCONVILLE

Chicago, Jan. 10—(P)—Flurries of buying lifted grain prices at the Board of Trade today. The start was shaky, with only corn showing some firmness, but short covering in other pits started a slow rise.

Some of the buying in wheat was attributed to prospects of damage to winter wheat by cold weather where there is lack of snow covering. There also were floor reports of a prospective floor buying by the Production and Marketing Administration.

Traders also had word that 3,000 tons of soybeans have been earmarked for Japan and that the government would be in the market for a sizeable amount of lard for shipment to Austria.

With some heavy weather developing over the corn belt looking on a to arrive basis were placed at 30,000 bushels.

Receipts were: wheat 1 car, corn 105 cars, 20, barley 16 and soybeans none.

At the finish wheat was 1 cent to 1 1/2 higher than yesterday's close, March $2.16-17. Corn was 1 to 1 1/2 higher, March $1.29 1/2-1. Oats were 1 to 1 cent higher, March 74. Rye was 1 cent to 1 1/2 higher, March $1.42. Soybeans were 1 to 2 cents higher, March $2.32-1 1/2 and lard was 2 to 10 cents a hundredweight higher, January $10.77.

POSTAL PROPOSAL
RECEIVED COLDLY

Washington, Jan. 10—(P)—President Truman's proposal to add another $395,000,000 to the nation's postal bill received scant sympathy on Capitol Hill today.

It was lawmakers dubious of getting even a third of that increase past Congress at this session.

Bills upping postal charges slightly more than $100,000,000 now are before the House and Senate.

New York Stock
Market

By WILLIAM D. HORGAN

New York, Jan. 10. —(P)—Stock prices retreated today under a rapid fire of profit-taking sales.

Widespread declines ranged from fractions to more than a point despite some recovery in late dealings.

The market again operated at a fast pace and total transfers were around 2,200,000 shares.

This marked the fourth successive full five-hour session in which volume topped the 2,000,000-share mark. Business flooded the exchange at the opening, and the ticker tape dropped behind floor transactions just as it did at the start yesterday.

A few favorites bucked the down trend and clung to gains of a point or more. Among these were U. S. Rubber and Goodrich. Nickel Plate common skiveeked more than 6 points late in the day on talk that it would be split as part of a proposed recapitalization plan.

Dropping to lower levels were Union Pacific, Santa Fe, Standard Oil (N.J.), Gulf Oil, Chrysler, Douglas Aircraft, Western Union, Dow Chemical, American Tobacco, Philco, U. S. Gypsum, J. I. Case, Montgomery Ward, Schenley and Anaconda copper.

Packard which opened unchanged at a block of 13,300 shares at 4 1/2, touched a new high later.

Garold Gilliland In Chicago For Billiard Tourney

Garold Gilliland, Jacksonville billiard artist, is competing in the sectional three-cushion tournament at Chicago this week.

The tournament started Monday and will last through Thursday.

Gilliland won the right to compete in the sectional play-offs by defeating a number of local aspirants in a round-robin tournament at the Drexel two weeks ago.

The sectional champion will move to the national finals at Navy Pier, Chicago in February.

Yale has won the swimming championship seven of the last 12 seasons in the Eastern Intercollegiate League.

The 1948-49 basketball season was the first in which the N.Y. opponents scored more than 1,000 points; the Middies made 1,064 to 1,054.

ISD'S TALLEST, 5-9

Irvin Carlstedt

Stretching 5-9 in his stocking feet, ISD center Irvin Carlstedt enjoys the distinction of being the tallest regular on the Tiger quintet.

Veteran of three years of varsity basketball, Carlstedt doesn't let his lack of height slow him down when he's fighting for rebounds from his center spot in the lineup. Built for football at which he's extremely proficient—Carlstedt is a rugged player to handle when firing his favorite pivot shot or guarding a lankier opponent.

Spike Wilson, Tiger coach, embarked with his squad for Louisiana, La., today where the westenders are competing in a 16-team invitational tournament.

Meredosia Whips Liberty 53-44 In Big Second Half

Pennsylvania Woman Is 103 Years Old

Carlisle, Pa., Jan. 10—(AP)—Mrs. Sarah A. Watson observed her 103rd birthday anniversary today but said she doesn't advise anyone "to live that long."

Mrs. Watson said she doesn't like it because in the last year her eyesight and hearing has failed somewhat and she has had "to slow down."

Her husband died 32 years ago.

We've always heard the term "fouled up" applied to a person who never really believed that such a character really existed, except as a figment of some "swabbies" imagination. Now we know 'tis true, Jacksonville's own Jerry Barber was Hoban's goat, not that it was any fault of his own. He tangled with pomp and circumstance for four days of nerve-racking golf trials but the big name he hit him in the home stretch. We're here to say that such won't always be the situation. He's due to start "clipping" himself one of these days—as only a Barber can.

That's his penalty for being a new boy in the game. Had Hogan quit the tournament Sunday, as he threatened to do, the chamber of commerce would surely have lost the backing of some 2,000 fans who came to watch him hit the comeback trail—and no chamber of commerce likes to operate in the dark. Still, we can't help but wonder what would have happened had the situation been reversed that rainy Sunday afternoon.

Los Angeles, Jan. 10—(AP)—The Golf Writers Association of America has honored Bing Crosby for the year's outstanding contribution to golf.

Charles Bartlett of the Chicago Tribune, secretary of the association, announced yesterday that Crosby will receive the William D. Richardson memorial trophy.

Bartlett said that Crosby's annual pro-amateur tournament at Del Monte, Calif., where the crooner foots the bill and turns over all receipts to charity, figured in the selection.

Others high in the voting were Ben Hogan and Bob Hope.

Mt. Sterling Uses Second Half Rally To Nose Out Jacks 58-48

Mt. Sterling—After holding a one-point advantage at halftime, Jacksonville high school's Crimson quintet fell before a second half Mt. Sterling onslaught and dropped a 58-48 decision to the Green Hornets here last night.

Jacksonville, hitting it long shots, stayed in the ball game with the ball-working Hornets through the first half mainly because the long ones were clicking. The Crimson shooting fell off after the intermission and they saw the 29-28 halftime lead melt away to a 43-37 margin for Mt. Sterling in the third period and an eventual ten-point victory for the hosts.

Mt. Sterling led 19-18 at the end of the first-quarter action.

McClelland was the big gun for Mt. Sterling, hitting for 15 points. He was closely followed by Robert-McClelland, f. 6 3 15.

Jacksonville marksmanship was evenly split among five athletes. Jack Chapman was tops on the list with 11 points, although Bill Williams, with ten, and Harvey Myers and Ron Kemp with nine each were close behind.

John Chapman's JHS gang, which saw its seasons record drop to 8-3 with the loss, switched from a man-to-man to zone defense several times in an effort to stop the three-two.

double pivot offensive system of the Mt. Sterling club, Jacksonville's defense worked fair in the first half. Defense and offense both fell slightly off the pace as the game wore on and Mt. Sterling pulled steadily away.

The Jacks take another road trip Friday night, moving into Havana. Mt. Sterling seconds won 50-43.

Los Angeles, Jan. 10—(AP)—Little Ben Hogan almost hit the jackpot in his dramatic comeback to golf today but Sam Snead came through eighteen green and tied him for with a spectacular putt on the top honors in the $15,000 Los Angeles open.

These two rivals for golf fame, Hogan and Snead, wound up the 72-hole grind with identical scores of 280.

They'll meet tomorrow in the third playoff in the history of this 24-year-old winter classic, but nothing can surpass the events of this final 18 holes of surprise and mounting tension.

In fact, it may prove an anti-climax.

Hogan was frank to admit: "I'm damned tired. I wish I didn't have to play tomorrow. Rather than that, I wish he'd won the tournament today."

Hogan finished the round first, shooting his third successive 69 in as many rounds. He calmly posted his 280 for the tournament he had won three times previously. He looked like the winner.

But came a rumble from the greens and fairways far down the course at picturesque Riviera Country Club. Sam Snead was hot. He was one under par 35 at the turn into the drive for home. He birdied the twelfth and thirteenth.

He passed the fourteenth and needed two birdies and two pars to tie Hogan.

The West Virginia drawler got his par on the next two holes, and banged his third shot high and straight, 10 feet from the pin on the seventeenth.

Snead turned to his threesome partner, Jack Burke, and cracked: "We gotta knock a couple of these in to get the little man."

The gallery howled they had never seen Snead so relaxed.

Sam knocked his 10-footer in. Then he came to the 455-yard eighteenth. It is a difficult hole to birdie. Snead's approach sailed true, but it left him with a 15-foot putt. He had to sink it to tie and "get the little man."

He studied the greens for four minutes. He addressed the ball. He sent it straight to its destination and the gallery called the shot even before it plunked into the cup.

It gave him a 66, five under par and two strokes better than the tournament's previous best round.

That was the big moment of the day, but prior to this the drama was divided. There was Hogan, making his final bid for fame in a comeback from a highway crash that all but ended his career 11 months ago.

There was another mighty mite, Jerry Barber of Pasadena, a comparative unknown who for three rounds kept the great names of the tournament trailing behind, only to blow up today with a 79 and a 288.

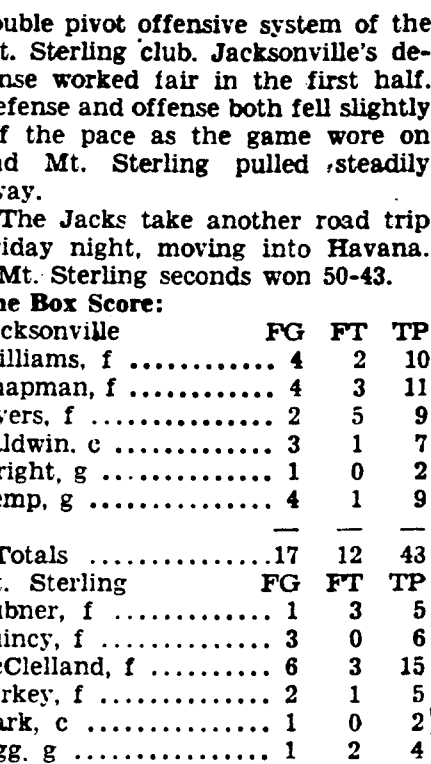

Young Jack Burke looked as a threat for a while, and he played brilliantly, if not well enough, shooting a 69 for 281.

Four strokes back of Burke came Ellsworth Vines, with a 72 for 285, and Jim Frier of San Francisco eased in with a 71 for 286.

Always, however, there was the interest in Hogan, and then the landslide toward the red-hot Mr. Snead and his dash from behind. Snead started out five strokes off the pace, and three behind Hogan. Then he proceeded to shoot himself a round of golf in which he collected five birdies and was never over par.

Twice before playoffs have occurred in this tournament. In 1935 Johnny Revolta defeated Vic Ghezzi, and in 1942 Hogan defeated Jimmy Thomson.

FREE THROW EXPERT

Bill Williams

An efficiency engineer when it comes to sinking free throws, Bill Williams, Jacksonville high school forward, has racked up 31 gift tosses out of 31 tries at the last check.

A sophomore, Williams is playing his second year of top-flight basketball for Coach John Chapman and company. He was a high-scoring regular as a freshman basketball last season. He is an even six feet tall.

Rockets Drop 47-38 Decision To Waverly, Mitchell Scores 21

Paul Stroud

Waverly—Paul Stroud's Routt Rockets failed to compete with a one-man basket-shooting demonstration at Waverly last night and saw Delbert "Pickles" Mitchell fire his Scotties to a 47-38 win over them.

Mitchell scored 21 points, almost half of Waverly's total.

The Rockets, playing their first game since the holiday tournament, started cold and trailed 7-4 at the end of first quarter action. Waverly led 19-15 at halftime and pulled away in the second half, holding a 33-27 advantage going into the final round.

Routt plays host to the Meredosians Indians at the Our Saviour's gymnasium this evening. The preliminary is set to start at 7 p. m. with the headline scheduled for 8:30. It will be a PMBC conference fracas.

Dick Casler and A. J. Spreen shared Routt scoring honors at Waverly. Casler nicked the hoop for nine counters while Spreen contributed eight. Rocket scoring was fairly even with Henry getting seven and Saner and Sellers scoring six each to complete the total.

The Routt second stringers won their first bout of the season, whipping the Scottie reserves 41-34 in the lifeline.

I Love My Doctor

By Evelyn Barkins

XXVI

I SUDDENLY realized the basic futility of all marital arguments, when two people fight it out in the kitchen, and then climb into the same bed at night. "I'm going home to Mother," he is much too reminiscent of a comic strip for popular acceptance, and the average 3-room apartment offers no alternative.

"Oh, darling," John begged, reaching across the invisible barrier, "Let's not fight. I didn't mean to forget. It just slipped my mind. I said I'm sorry. Won't you forgive me, dear?"

In my saner moments, I may stop to appreciate the humor and pathos of the ordinary husband's burden of birthdays, anniversaries, and religious and private holidays, not to speak of the commercial Mother - Father - Sister - Brother days. But even today, in my average moments, I do what I did then. I moved brusquely still further away in the bed, until one good breath would have sent me over the edge.

Finally, after 20 more minutes of this intelligent type of conversation, John succumbed, as always, to the stimulus of the soft bed, and fell asleep. As I lay there listening to the sounds in the quiet house—the water dripping in the bathroom sink, a creaking board, the steady humming of the refrigerator in the kitchen—I became more and more unhappy.

Listening for nocturnal noises in general, real and imaginary, is my specialty, induced by a vague kind of fear of the dark, this particular occupation has become quite an art with me, and I have little difficulty nowadays in distinguishing between the faint break of a cockroach crossing the kitchen floor and the slightly louder noise of a carpenter ant in the foyer.

But this night, as I listened, I heard a real, terrifying noise that sounded, beside the usual lesser ones, like an oil tanker explosion or the mating call of Gargantua the Great.

"John!" I was up in bed, clutching at him hard.

This routine having taken place upon other occasions, unfortunately, he refused to accept my wolf.

"Go to sleep," he groaned sleepily.

"Sh!" I whispered, hearing it distinctly again. "Just listen!" Only half awake, he sat up too, and in the silence that followed, we could both clearly hear the sounds of a window being fumbled with.

"In the office. The alleyway window!" Wide awake now, he made the explanation as if it were a complicated diagnosis.

"Oh," I could scarcely speak. "Call the police, hurry!" I gave him the telephone number of the radio car squad, which I had secretly engraved on my brain in neon lights for something like this.

IN one minute we phoned; in another, we grabbed our robes. John, who had obviously seen too many movies, was all for going straight in and making charge.

"Oh, no, darling," I said, forgetting my grievances and anger for the first time. "You might get hurt. Stay here. Please!"

Fortunately, for my feelings and John's ego, just then with a screaming of sirens and brakes, two police cars drove up and setled the issue. We let two policemen in the front door, while two others went round the back. It was better than any motion picture I had ever seen. They ran with drawn guns, and shouted to the housebreaker in the alley: "Stop or we'll shoot!"

"The blessed name of the Law," I thought, reassured by their grim faces and impressive firearms, and beginning to enjoy it all.

"Isn't it thrilling?" I whispered to John, who looked at me as if I had been bit on the head and was developing acute idiocy. Before he could, reply, however, the police reappeared, looking a little foolish, as they came forth dragging a half unconscious drunk who kept slobbering: "I wanna go home. Home Sweet Home. I wanna go home."

It was a little like using a fire-extinguisher to blow out a match, and we all burst out laughing.

"We'll take you home, all right, to the county jail," said the policeman in back, and I uttered a cry of recognition.

"Officer Kelly," I said happily, as he came forward. "I haven't seen you since that accident case. That old man, remember?"

"Sure and I do," he said, shaking hands heartily with John and me. "Never found the old geezer either. Probably belonged near by. Well, you had yourself a little scare tonight, didn't you?"

SUDDENLY, it was like Old Home Week, and we all laughed and toasted our good spirits with a round of beers. Then we said a gay farewell with thanks to the whole Police Department, locked up, and went happily back to bed still talking it over.

"Say," I said suddenly, sitting up straight. "I'm supposed to be mad at you. Remember?"

John pulled me down beside him. "You forgave me," he said teasingly.

"I did not," I murmured, close in his arms.

"But you do now," said John. "And I was silly," I replied penitently. "And there's nothing to forgive."

After a long moment, I spoke once more: "Let's never fight ever, ever again," I said.

"Never," said John fervently, sounding as if a miles-one had been reached and passed. "Darling, it was awful. It was terrible!"

"I know," I said, suddenly realizing too that we probably would fight again and again, over many things to come, but those would never, really, matter any more than this did now. "It was terrible," I agreed, hugging him hard, "but it was also marriage." (To Be Continued.)

Early Hearing On Peacetime Draft Promised

Washington, Jan. 10.—(P)—An early hearing on President Truman's request for continuing the peacetime draft was promised today by the House Armed Services committee.

But Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) hinted strongly that it will get scant sympathy from members who already have voiced opposition to keeping selective service on the books beyond the June 30 expiration date.

Vinson informed the committee today that Secretary of Defense Johnson is expected to send a draft extension bill to Capitol Hill later this week.

"Of course we will promptly give a hearing to the defense department's request," he said and added: "I think I know exactly what this committee will do."

Vinson's view were set forth last fall in a letter to President Truman. At that time he said there was little chance Congress would extend peacetime conscription.

Secretary of the Army Gordon Gray and other military spokesmen have argued for continuing draft legislation as a token of good faith to America's North Atlantic treaty friends and notice of readiness to potential enemies.

Due to the success of the voluntary enlistment program, draft calls were suspended last Jan. 30. Since the law was reenacted in 1948 after a year's lapse, only about 30,000 inductions have been processed.

LOCAL FAMILY VISITS CHILDREN IN TEXAS

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fountain of 337 N. Webster avenue and their daughter, Charlotte Jean, have returned from San Antonio, Texas, where they had a two-week visit with their two children, James W. Fountain and wife and John E. Sanstra, his wife, Marguerite, and their daughter, Mary Catherine.

Upon their return they received a long distance call from their son, James William, just before he left for Hartford, Conn., to continue his study of typewriters and adding machines at the Underwood factory there. He was selected from a group of 55 employees to make the trip, on which his expenses were paid by the company.

Their daughter, Mrs. Marguerite Sanstra, is expecting to arrive in Jacksonville with her family sometime in March. Her husband, who has served ten years in the army, intends to reenlist here.

Harry C. Kumle Of Alexander Dies Tuesday

Harry C. Kumle, well known Alexander farmer who had been active in Morgan county AAA activities, passed away at 9:40 p.m. Tuesday at a local hospital. He was a member of the Morgan County Farm Bureau and was affiliated with the Central Christian church of Jacksonville. Mr. Kumle was the chairman of the AAA community committee of township 15-9.

He was born May 14, 1887, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvis Kumle of Lynnville.

Surviving are one brother, Sebastian B. Kumle of Jacksonville, two nieces, Lucille Kumle Crawford of Alexander and June Kumle of Iowa City, Iowa, and a nephew, F. B. Kumle, Jr., of Alexander. He also leaves two great-nieces, Sallie Lou Crawford and Cheryl Lee Kumle of Alexander.

The body was taken to the Reynolds Mortuary. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Investigate Man Who Wed Daughter Of Divorced Wife

Grand Rapids, Mich., Jan. 10.—(P)—The Kent county prosecutor's office today was investigating the tangled romance of a Grand Rapids factory worker who married the 16 year old daughter of his divorced wife.

Assistant Prosecutor Claude Vander Ploeg said a warrant had been issued charging Victor Bishop, 35, with contributing to the delinquency of a minor. But, said Vander Ploeg, the warrant will not be served if the marriage proves to be legal.

Bishop and his bride, the former Jean Lorenski, produced a marriage certificate indicating they were married before a South Bend, Ind., justice of the peace last Friday, Vander Ploeg said.

But Bishop's divorced wife, Helen, Jean's mother, tearfully told the assistant prosecutor she would seek to have the marriage annulled.

"I gave him a divorce last December when he told me he was in love with a younger woman," Mrs. Bishop told Vander Ploeg. "But I didn't know the other woman was my own daughter," she added.

Bishop and his former wife, also 35, both are employed in a local factory.

Vander Ploeg said he was investigating two things—whether the marriage certificate was valid, and whether the consent of Mrs. Bishop was necessary in Indiana for her daughter to wed legally.

Mrs. Helen Bishop said she had been divorced from Jean's father, Vander Ploeg said.

Dr. Wynkoop said she deeded the property to her son, Walker, while awaiting trial of the murder charge, and that the transfer was with the understanding the property would be returned at her request.

The son died in 1948 without leaving a will and his heirs have retained the two-story building on the northwest side which houses stores and apartments.

Judge Harrington held that all testimony indicated the woman conveyed the property to her son in a complete trust.

Dr. Wynkoop was released from prison in 1947 after serving 14 years of a 25-year sentence for murdering her daughter-in-law Pheta, then 23 years old.

Rheta, wife of Earl Wynkoop, was found shot to death in the basement of the physician's old Chicago mansion on Nov. 21, 1933.

At the murder trial, the state contended Dr. Wynkoop had obtained a $10,000 life insurance policy on the young woman, then planned to kill her.

Bartender Forced At Gunpoint To Stay In Bed During Robbery

Jacksonville and county officials last night continued their search for the bandits who used a pistol to keep a bartender in his bed as they ransacked the Alps tavern on Route 67, south of Jacksonville, early Tuesday morning.

They also sought the men responsible for burglarizing another tavern, Tommy's Store, on U.S. 36 west of the city limits.

Officials last night expressed the opinion that two young parolees from St. Charles School for Boys, who had been suspected of the crimes, did not commit the robbery and burglary. Both were still in the city jail last night, charged with auto theft and parole violation.

Economy Clamor Around Budget Grows Louder

Washington, Jan. 10.—(P)—A congressional economy clamor grew louder today around President Truman's $42,000,000,000, out-of-balance budget.

Nearly all the senators and house members were saying openly or behind their hands that spending will be too high, the deficit will be too big and they ought to get out the ax and go to work on the budget.

Yet in years past all that talk of economy in January often has turned out to be still just that in June—still just talk. And some lawmakers are aware that this year's economy campaign also could turn out to be more talk than action.

Senator Aiken (R-Vt.) summed up that point of view:

"I have been anticipating a deficit. And it is going to be difficult to pare it any in this election year. We may be able to make some reduction but not to any great extent."

Nor were there any loud calls for a hefty tax increase, or even for the "moderate" one Mr. Truman keeps asking for. A tax boost would help blot out some of the $53,000,000,000 in red ink that's in prospect for the year starting next July 1.

Sentiment seemed to be running the other way, toward a cut in taxes, if anything.

Furthermore, it looked as if that $53,000,000,000 deficit might be bigger than Mr. Truman counted on. He based his estimate primarily on an idea that Congress would up mail rates by $395,900,000.

If Congress fails to prove part or all of the increase, the deficit will go up just that much.

Both boys said they drove it from this city to Virginia and Beards-town, returning early Tuesday morning. They were sleepy-eyed and muddy when apprehended.

The chief said early Tuesday night that both boys continued to deny any complicity in the tavern burglaries. They will be turned over to probation officers today.

Farm Wage Rates Below Last Year

Washington, Jan. 10.—(P)—The Agriculture department reported today that farm wage rates are averaging about 2.3 per cent below a year ago.

Hourly rates on Jan. 1 averaged 58.7 cents compared with 60.1 cents a year ago.

Farm employment totaled about 7,150,000 persons on Jan. 1, including hired hands and family workers. Employment a year ago was 7,155,000. The number of workers at the end of November was about 9,003,000. Farm work normally eases off some at this time of the year.

The department said farmers have plowing and other work well advanced, are well equipped with machinery, and in a position to carry on their 1950 operations with less hired labor.

Arenzville — Thirty-two members of the Ladies Aid of Trinity Lutheran church assembled at the church basement for their first meeting of the new year.

The meeting was opened by the singing of a hymn. Scripture and prayer were read by the pastor, Rev. W. V. Neundorff, who also had charge of the topic study, "Missions among the deaf and deaf blind."

A business session followed conducted by Mrs. Harold Witte, who gave a very interesting report of her visit to the Addison orphan home and Bethesda Lutheran home, where she delivered Christmas packages from the society.

Luncheon was served at the noon hour by the hostesses, Mrs. William Winkelman, Mrs. L. Winkelman, Mrs. Edward Witte and Mrs. Harold Witte.

Mrs. Garland Winkelman was a guest. The day was spent in quilting.

The deceased was a member of St. Patrick's church in Springfield. The body was taken to the McCullough Funeral Home in New Berlin. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Recover Car In Pasture

Police early Tuesday morning recovered a 1941 Hudson sedan belonging to R. E. Fairfield, 690 North Clay avenue, which was stolen from its parking place on West State St. near the Applebee building sometime between 7 o'clock Monday night and 4 o'clock Tuesday morning. The car was found in a pasture on East Walnut street, which during the summer is used as a show grounds by circuses and carnivals.

A short time after the abandoned car was found, the police department arrested Raymond Hayes, 15, and Thomas DuWayne Picton, 14, who officers said have been inmates of the state boys school.

Hayes admitted stealing the car, but Picton denied all knowledge of the car theft. Late Tuesday afternoon the latter told police he and Hayes had stolen the auto. Officers accompanied Hayes to the corner of Hackett and Hockenhull, where he had buried the car keys, which were found and returned to the owner.

Confesses to Car Theft

After parrying the questions of officers for some time, young Picton finally admitted his part in the theft of the automobile, according to Chief Kiloran.

Both boys said they drove it from this city to Virginia and Beards-town, returning early Tuesday morning. They were sleepy-eyed and muddy when apprehended.

The chief said early Tuesday night that both boys continued to deny any complicity in the tavern burglaries. They will be turned over to probation officers today.

Mrs. Fred German and Lawrence Smith of Chicago, arrived in Jacksonville Tuesday afternoon, called here by the illness of their father, James T. Smith, who is a patient at Passavant hospital.

SCHOOL BOARD RECEIVES SURVEY BY TAX GROUP

Mrs. Velma Crain, a representative of the Taxpayers Federation of Illinois who is making a survey of the building needs of the Jacksonville public schools, met with the Jacksonville Board of Education last night. She discussed the steps which have been taken to determine the future enrollment.

Her report followed an inspection of all of the school buildings and an examination of the different plans considered by the board to provide for additional children.

The most important evidence, she said, is the survey which was conducted recently by the local Parent Teachers association, in which all school age and pre-school children in the city were counted. These survey figures are being compiled and will be carefully analyzed to determine the extent of enrollment increases.

Mrs. Crain told the board that she would submit her final report, with recommendations, within the next four weeks.

The birthrate in Jacksonville continues to show a continuing high trend, City Superintendent D. R. Blodgett told the board. There were 320 births in 1949. The figures for the last six years are: 1944, 208; 1945, 206; 1946, 293; 1947, 322; 1948, 287.

More families are moving into Jacksonville, the survey shows. During the past two years 284 families have moved into this city as compared with 248 removals.

Capacity Crowd Hears I. C. Lecturer Give Report On Semantics

Many Jacksonville residents last night joined Illinois College students to greet S. I. Hayakawa, teacher and author, who spoke at Jones Chapel on the subject, "Why We Don't Behave Like Human Beings." A capacity crowd thronged Jones chapel to hear the Canada-born Japanese scholar deliver "a sort of tentative report on the progress of certain sociological and psychological techniques."

A student of semantics, the 43 year author of the best seller of 1941, "Language in Action," held the rapt attention of his audience as he spoke quietly of the "slight gains we have made in our quest to understand each other."

He defined semantics as the study of how human beings influence themselves and each other through the use of language.

Dependent On Language

A social order is dependent on linguistic processes, he asserted. Both conflict and cooperation entail an enormous amount of words, words which often don't mean the same to auditor and listener.

"To start a war innumerable fists must be pounded on innumerable tables, scores of ambassadors must walk out of scores of conferences, and millions of words at cross-purposes must be used by the people in conflict," he declared.

He reviewed recent work among individuals, group dynamics and general semantics.

"The wire recorder," he continued, "is an important tool to the student of semantics, as important as the microscope to the biologist. Through its use we can learn what the group said and how it reacted; continued study shows what it said what it did."

Good Listeners Rare

The speaker observed there were few "good listeners." Mankind has developed a firm technique of refutation, but is sadly lacking in the techniques of agreement.

"Too often the individual feels that agreement appears weak, that the participant shows lack of strength."

Mr. Hayakawa concluded his lecture with the observation that "these new techniques promise much; they may be the avenues to peace among all peoples."

Miss Dorothy Foote of the college lecture committee introduced the visitor. Earlier Tuesday he was the guest at a tea held in his honor at the David A. Smith Home.

Luncheon Given For Flock Owners

Talks on flock management, egg production and poultry diseases featured the flock owners' meeting held all day Tuesday at Central Christian church under the sponsorship of the Jacksonville branch of Swift & Co. A luncheon was served at noon.

Latin American Print Exhibit Now At I. C.

Dances in Mexico by Carlos Merida and Three Engravers of Argentine are now on exhibition at Tanner Library, Illinois College. Sponsored by the I.C. art department, these lithographs, woodcuts and dypoints are circulated by the Pan American Union.

Carlos Merida is one of the outstanding Mexican artists of today. Much of his work is non-representational, but the color lithographs in this exhibition are decorative figures illustrating the dances of Mexico.

The art of engraving has achieved a remarkable degree of technical perfection in Argentina, and has produced many skilled engravers. Three Engravers Of Argentina shows the work of Amadeo dell'Acqua, Alberto Nicasio, and Victor Rebuffo.

Albert Nicasio was born in Cordoba, Argentina, in 1902. He is a skillful teacher of engraving, and many of his pupils have distinguished themselves as masters of the medium. His work has been exhibited in leading museums and universities in Argentina, Chile, Uruguay, and the United States. Nicasio's woodcut technique is crisp and elegant. He uses fine lines and a great variety of patterned cuts to obtain a rich, stylized print.
